

Our Journey Together

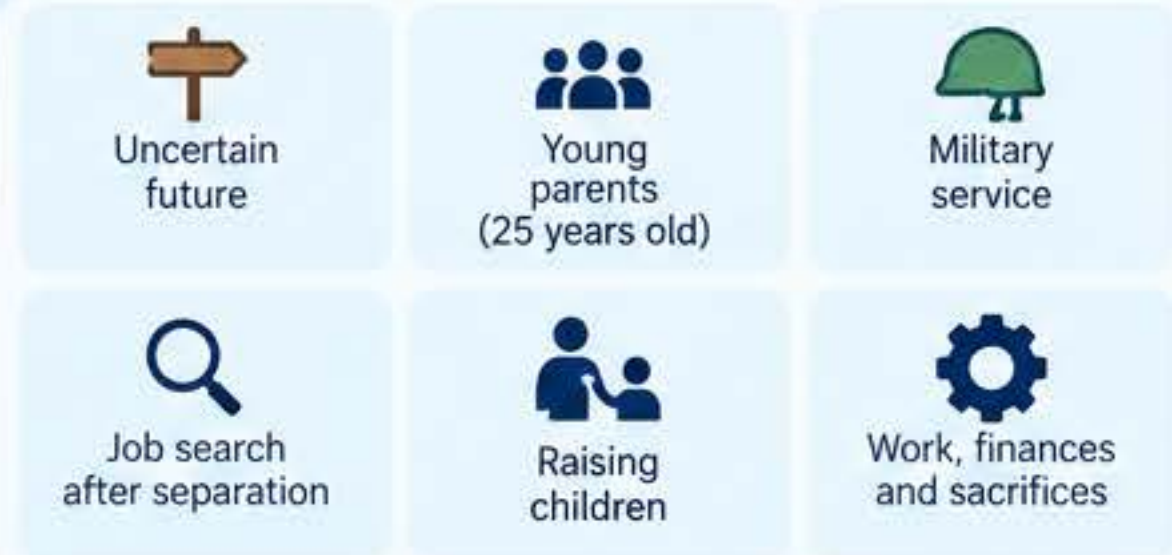

Two young people. Many unknowns. One team. A lifetime of milestones.

We didn't know the entire route when we started.
We only knew that we would face the next chapter together.
And after all these years, we are still moving forward together.

The Challenges We Faced

A Priceless Trophy

Seeing my son's name as the prescriber on my medication bottle is like a Tour de France trophy or an Olympic gold medal.

It represents the decades of love, sacrifice, patience, and hard work that brought us to this moment.

Our Children

Brittney

- Daughter
- RN
- Passed NCLEX
- January 2020
- Started her own professional life

Brent

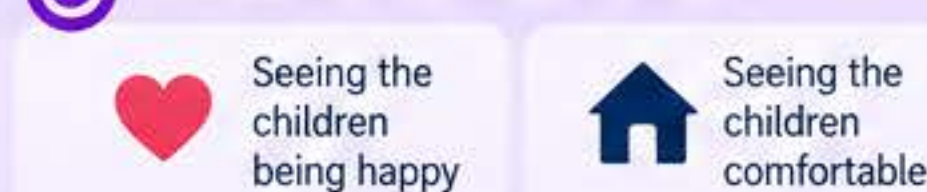

- Son
- MD
- Completed medical school
- Now earning a paycheck
- First few paychecks: $4,000 weekly screenshots to his mother

What Made It Possible

A Parent's Two Wishes

Where We Are Now

A lifetime of shared experiences, from 1986 to now.

We started with very little certainty. We kept going. We built a family. We helped our children find their way. And now we get to experience this next chapter together.
